TOOK THREE FROM HENS

The Champions Got Everything in Sight.

ACONIZING EXHIBITION

WAS GIVEN YESTERDAY—VISIT-ORS PLAYED FRIGHTFULLY
RAGGED GAME—CRANGLE
PITCHED WELL.

The fans were glad when the game yesterday between the Champions and Henderson was over. It was almost devoid of interest and the long list of errors robbed the fans of what little pleasure they might have derived from the fact that the home team won.

Following is the score by innings:

First Inning.
Henderson—Mullen hit safe; Bohannon hit to pitcher, forcing Mullen out at second; Bensley was hit by batted ball; McNutt struck out. No runs.

Second Inning.

DIAMOND DUST.

Alice today.

Bitoff and Harvey.

Take three from Alice.

The ragged edges appeared frequently.

The three leaders won again yesterday.

The ladies cheered when Henderson erred.

The ladies were present and enjoyed the show.

Thirteen errors were made in yesterday's game.

Give the ladies another chance. Yesterday's apology don't count.

"My husband thinks I've gone after meat for supper," remarked one of the lady fans.

An enthusiastic young woman thought it a shame that Larsen couldn't get further than third base on an error at first.

When Catcher Downing of the visitors ran against the grand stand in an effort to catch a foul one fair daisy said she thought they ought to pad it.

"Happy" Crangle was the bright spot in the game. He was a trifle wild but pitched well and fielded perfectly. He pulled in a hot liner in the eighth.

One woman was heard explaining to a crowd of friends that coaches were kept in place for the purpose of looking after the ball to see that it was all right.
